- Middle School – December Ended with Spirit Week
- High School – Winter Athletic Teams Performing Very Well / Great Winter Concert Events

3. Graduation Credits for Middle School Courses – Dr. Ron Hallett

- In some cases Middle School and High School courses are identical. Others may not be identical, but close.
- Considerations:
 - What courses apply?
 - Is there a cap that will be accepted?
 - Is this limited by grade level or content?
 - How might this impact GPA?
 - Recognizing that students of equal ability develop readiness at different rates.
- Committee members discussed initial feedback and any concerns.

4. Social Skills Curriculum – Mrs. Juliet Ashton

- Postponed until February

5. KPETS in Special Programs – Dr. Melanie Calender

- Service organization that brings dogs into WSD schools recently.
- Proposal
 - Approx. one time a week
 - Physical interaction in occupational therapy
 - Sensory support
 - Audience for reading practice
 - Science and functional living – animal care

6. Other Items:

- Thank you to Lititz Elementary for their use of School Families (expanded to all four buildings). Mr. Huber saw the benefit of these new relationships at a recent event.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dr. Ryan P. Berardi
