COMMUNITY MEMBERS:

1. Welcome - Mrs. Emily Zimmerman, School Board Member

Mrs. Zimmerman welcomed everyone to the meeting.

2. Student Representative Report - Mr. Liam Zee, Student Representative

Liam shared a few brief updates, noting feedback will be coming in for the board meeting at the end of the month. Spirit activities, instructional activities, and community service activities from across the district were shared. An update on the E-Sports team was shared, noting the program is going well with a variety of games being played. Girls wrestling has started as well. The National Honor Society will be participating in the Polar Plunge coming up soon. The Quiz Bowl team won their match today.

3. Student Data Presentation 2021/2022 - Dr. Lindsey Stock

Dr. Stock and Dr. Szoboscan shared a performance review of data from the 2021-2022 school year. Early Intervention data was shared, noting the numbers of students who entered school each year with identification categories prior to school. Kindergarten through 2nd grade Acadience reading data was shared. Grade 3 ELA and Grade 7 Math scores were shared as important early indicators for performance prediction. Dr.

Calender shared the desire to make an increase in the percentage of students performing at the proficient to advanced level through growth in instructional practice. Building specific data was shared from the Future Ready Index. ELA, Math, and Science data was shared along with PVAAS growth data over time. Dr. Szoboscan reviewed secondary achievement data as well. Math was listed as an area of focus as a takeaway from the data. Dr. Szoboscan explained the Future Ready PA Index, noting inaccuracies with students missing from the data, included due to the way it is required to be reported from students who took the test over the 2019-2020 school year and received an exempted score. Additional data was shared from the secondary, the graduation rate (above the state average), SAT scores, ACT scores, advanced placement testing, college in the classroom, Assessment of Civic Knowledge, and Concurrent Educational Experience. District student attendance was also shared. District Career Standards benchmarks were also shared. Post secondary transition data based upon the class of 2022's data for future plans, from about $\frac{1}{3}$ of the graduating class sharing their future plans in the data. Demographic and discipline data was shared. The purpose behind the data was shared, with district discussions, building discussions, professional development, MTSS programming, and targeted instructional planning being informed by the data. A survey link was listed and this data will be shared at the committee off the whole and then the data and survey will go out to the district for feedback.

4. University of Florida Literacy Institute Foundations Pilot Request - Dr. Lindsey Stock

Dr. Stock noted that this program is already being piloted at Bonfield Elementary at the Tier 1 level. John Beck would like to pilot this in 2nd and 4th grade in tier 2 and/or tier 3. Mrs. Evans, John Beck Reading Specialist would like to have this programming available in grades K-6. UFLI teaches phonics in a systematic way, with decodable application practice of the taught skills.

5. New Resources for Review: Spring 2023 - Dr. Lindsey Stock

Jenn Hartzler shared the Land of Can virtual resources and books, written by Warwick graduate JJ Vulopas. 14 words of can are included with the instructional tools (resilience, empathy, courage, perseverance, leadership, creativity, character, opportunity, collaboration, control, grit, and balance). Students are taught the definition of each word and how to apply the word in life. Mrs. Hartzler shared the connection to the counseling domains that are already taught. JJ partnered with Lancaster Lebanon CAN which allows 3rd graders in the IU13 to receive the books for free. The counselors are requesting to use CAN as a resource for the counseling curriculum. Permission is being requested for these books to be used with 3rd graders beginning this school year.

6. Old Business

There was no old business to share.

7. Public Comment

Gerald Meck requested to share. He thanked the students who help at Moravian Manor. He shared he is a big advocate for pre-k work. He noted that over the last few days he has interacted with Warwick students. They shared about a wonderful experience they have had in the district. He noted the students were respectful and engaged in meaningful ways. Mr. Meck also shared he was at the basketball game the other evening and a family seated near him explained the great experience they are having, moving here from Ephrata. He thanked the board and teachers for having a positive impact upon students in the community. Mr. Meck asked for 4 or 5 huge takeaways from the shared data.

Mrs. Zimmerman thanked presenters and shared that she looks forward to meeting next month.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:05 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Amy Balsbaugh
