Information from the Superintendent

Dr. Hershey shared the following:

- Tonight is the last school board meeting for Liam Zee. He has been the student representative to the board for 2 years and has done a phenomenal job representing the student body at school board meetings, the Education Committee meetings, as well as the Student Activities Committee meetings. A token of appreciation was presented to Liam by Dr. Hershey and the Board.
- Senior Awards, Baccalaureate (June 1st), and Graduation (June 2nd) are coming up soon.
- June 2nd is an early dismissal day for Grades K-11 (10:00 a.m. – for secondary; 10:45 a.m. for elementary).
- The Reality Fair was held today (May 16th) at the Middle School. It provides some real-life scenarios for students. Many volunteers help to make this event happen and we appreciate all of the volunteers. Some District Office staff were also able to volunteer with this event. Thanks to everyone!
- On Monday, May 15th, five students visited to Luther Acres to share how technology is being used in schools.
- A retired band director from Hempfield HS and a Director/Producer/Writer came to speak and work with students to enrich what they are doing in the classroom.
- Six students submitted work to the Congressional Art Competition.
- Clair Global staff led a STEM lesson for Middle School students about soundwaves.
- Allison Mateyak received the rank of National Cyber Scholar and is possibly the first Warwick student to achieve this honor.
- Grade 6 students at Lititz Elementary received a shoutout in The Prosecutors' podcast for their study of the historical mystery 'The Lost Cosmonauts'. The students were able to present their theories on what they think really happened.
- The High School Mini-Thon raised approximately $46,000 at their event on May 1st.
- Jonah Ahlers received a Union League of Philadelphia Good Citizenship Award.
- Twelve students were inducted in to the Tri M Music Honor Society (4/26).
- Eight musicians participated in the PMEA All-State Honors Festival (4/22).

- No school on Monday, May 29th (Memorial Day)

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Student Representative

The student representative, Liam Zee, provided provided an overview of student activities across the district in May.

Building and Property Committee

The Building & Property Committee did not meet in May and did not have any recommendations for the Board at this time.

Education Committee

The Education Committee met on Monday, May 8, 2023. Mrs. Zimmerman and Mrs. Penkunas provided the welcome to the committee and community members. Mr. Liam Zee provided a student report on district activities across all buildings.

Warwick High School English Teachers Laura Houghton and Taylor Cole presented their plan to create a 9th grade vocabulary e-text. Past resources were reviewed, with challenges shared. Ms. Houghton and Ms. Cole also shared research that supports the idea that a variety of resources are needed to practice vocabulary. Creation of the e-text will be cost effective for Warwick and will align instruction for all 9th grade students. The vocabulary would come from what has been used as well as researched lists sharing best vocabulary for high school students.

Dr. Melanie Calender shared about Early Reach Coordination by the Office of Vocational Rehabilitation (OVR) specifically about an opportunity for students who receive special education supports. OVR is a statewide program that provides support for students and job training experiences. Dr. Calender and the Office of Special Education plan to expand programming to include a representative from OVR coming into the classroom for students to receive lessons focused on the skills for career opportunities. Families will be notified of this programming and can choose whether or not they want their student to participate.

Dr. Stock recognized outgoing committee members, Mr. Matt Huber and Ms. Stacey Geesaman, who have served for six years on the committee which is the maximum time to serve. Dr. Calender noted the two vacancies will be posted over the summer for individuals to apply.

There will be no June meeting of the committee. Our next committee meeting will be held in August.

The Committee did not have any recommendations for the Board at this time.

Finance and Legal Committee

The Finance & Legal Committee met on Tuesday, May 2, 2023. The committee reviewed the 2023-24 proposed final general fund budget and obsolete equipment. The committee had the following recommendation for Board approval:
